ARTICLE I.

NAME.

SECTION 1. This Association is a corporation under the laws of the State of Georgia, by name "THE CAPITAL CITY CLUB."

ARTICLE II.

PROPERTY.

SECTION 1. The property of the Club shall consist of the City Club-house and lot, in Atlanta, the Country Club-house, golf course and grounds, at Brookhaven, and such other property as may be necessary for its purposes. The beneficial interest therein shall belong to the resident members of the Club. On ceasing to be a resident member such interest shall terminate.

ARTICLE III.

GOVERNMENT.

SECTION 1. The government and management of the Club is confided to a Board consisting of the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and nine members, to be known as the Governing Board.

SEC. 2. Any member of the Governing Board who shall absent himself from two consecutive regular meetings, unless he shall have previously obtained permission so to do from the Board, or shall present at the next regular meeting an excuse for his absence satisfactory to every member of the Board present, shall cease to be a member of the Board.

ARTICLE IV.

POWERS OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

SECTION 1. The President is authorized to appoint a House Committee of three and a Country Club Committee of three, whose duty it shall be, subject to the control of the Governing Board, to direct and manage the house affairs of the City and Country Clubs respectively, and to receive and act upon complaints and suggestions of members relative to the house affairs, reporting monthly to the Governing Board.

SEC. 2. To appoint a Finance Committee of three whose duty it shall be, subject to the direction and control of the Governing Board, to direct and manage the financial affairs of the Club, and to receive and act upon complaints and suggestions of members relative to the financial affairs, reporting monthly to the Governing Board.

SEC. 3. To appoint such other committees as he may consider necessary, and to define their duties.

SEC. 4. The Governing Board is authorized: To prescribe rules for the admission of strangers.

SEC. 5. To make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the government of the Club and its members, and to alter and amend the same.

SEC. 6. To fix penalties for violation of the rules, and to enforce the same.

SEC. 7. To remit penalties for offenses against the rules, and for unintentional violations of the Constitution.

SEC. 8. To call special meetings of the Club to consider the subjects specified.

SEC. 9. To make rules for their own government, and to fix and enforce penalties for the violation of such rules.

SEC. 10. To fill vacancies in the Governing Board and offices, caused by death, resignation or otherwise, until the next regular annual election by the Club.

SEC. 11. To generally manage and conduct all matters necessary to the welfare of the Club.

SEC. 12. There shall be no appeal from the decisions of the Governing Board except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 13. To put in operation an employee pension plan.

ARTICLE V.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Members shall be classed as Life, Senior, Senior Intermediate, Intermediate, Georgia Nonresident, Out of State Nonresident, Military, Ministerial, Honorary, Lady Golf, Junior Golf, Temporary, Widow, and Special Nonresident.

SEC. 2. Life members are such as have dues paid up for life, or have been a resident or nonresident member for a total period of 40 years. They are subject to assessments, but not to further dues, and they have the right to hold office.

SEC. 3. Resident members are such as reside, or have a place of business within a radius of thirty-five miles from the center of Atlanta, and fall within three classifications according to age, to-wit:

(a) Senior members are resident members who have reached the age of thirty-two.

(b) Senior Intermediate members are resident members between the ages of twenty-seven and thirty-two.

(c) Intermediate members are resident members between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-seven.

Resident members are subject to initiation fees, dues, assessments, and only resident members shall have the right to hold office or to vote at the meetings of the club.

SEC. 4. Georgia Nonresident members and Out of State Nonresident members are such as reside out of, and have no place of business in, the territory embraced within a radius of thirty-five miles from the center of Atlanta. They are subject to initiation fee and dues but not to assessments and are not entitled to vote or hold office.

SEC. 5. Military members are members of the Armed Forces of the United States on the active list. They have all privileges and are governed by the same rules as resident members except that no initiation fee is required, and they may not vote or hold office.

SEC. 6. Ministerial members are regularly ordained Ministers of the Gospel. They have all privileges and are governed by the same rules as resident members except that no initiation fee is required, and they may not vote or hold office.

SEC. 7. Honorary members are, ex-officio, the Governor and Justices of the Supreme Court and of the Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia and those elected to this membership by the Governing Board. They are not subject to initiation fee, dues and assessments and are not entitled to vote or hold office.

SEC. 8. Lady Golf members are the wives, daughters or sisters, or other dependent female members, of the regular member's family, who are extended the privileges of the golf course. These privileges are granted by the Governing Board upon the written request of the regular member and the payment of annual dues. The member who sponsors the membership is responsible for her accounts and her acts while on Club property.

SEC. 9. Junior Golf members are youths between the ages of ten and twenty-one, who are dependent relatives of a regular member, and who are extended the privileges of the golf course. These privileges are granted by the Governing Board upon the written request of the regular member and the payment of annual dues. The member who sponsors the membership is responsible for his accounts and acts while on Club property.

SEC. 10. Temporary members are persons to whom the Governing Board extends the privileges of the Club for a maximum of four months. They are not subject to initiation fees or assessments but shall pay monthly the same dues as required of resident members according to age.

SEC. 11. Widow members are the widows of deceased members who are allowed the privileges of the Club, except the golf course, until remarriage, provided the request for such privileges is made by a member in good standing who agrees, in writing, to be responsible for the payment of her account.

SEC. 12. Special Nonresident members are such as reside out of the territory embraced within a radius of 35 miles from the City of Atlanta but who are in Atlanta frequently and would use the Club to a greater extent than is expected of a Nonresident member. They are subject to initiation fees and dues but not to assessments and are not entitled to vote or hold office. Nonresident members may be transferred to Special Nonresident members at the direction of the Governing Board.

SEC. 13. All classes of membership, except Senior, Senior Intermediate, Intermediate and Georgia Nonresident are unlimited as to number.

SEC. 14. Senior membership is limited to the number of 800; Senior Intermediate membership is limited to the number of 75; Intermediate membership is limited to the number of 60; Georgia Nonresident membership is limited to the number of 160.

SEC. 15. Membership in the Club shall be by invitation only. A request that an invitation to membership be extended must be made by at least three members in good standing, and the proposed member must be known by two members of the Governing Board.

SEC. 16. The Secretary shall place the name of the proposed member, together with the names of the persons proposing him, on the Bulletin Board in the Club House for at least ten days before action by the Governing Board. It shall then be referred to the Governing Board at its regular monthly meeting, the proceedings of which thereon shall be secret and confidential. The negative votes of two members of the Board shall exclude the proposed member.

SEC. 17. It shall be the duty of the Governing Board to make careful examination, and to consider all communications in reference to each person proposed for membership.

SEC. 18. It shall be the duty of each member of the Club possessed of any information derogatory to the character of a proposed member, or knowing of any good reason why he should not become a member, to communicate the same to the Governing Board. All such communications are to be held by the Governing Board in strict confidence.

SEC. 19. After an election the Secretary shall notify the individual elected and furnish him with a copy of the Constitution and Rules, and upon his subscribing to same and paying the Secretary the initiation fee and dues required he shall be entitled to the rights of a member.

SEC. 20. Any person elected and not complying with the foregoing requirements within three months from the time of his election shall be considered as having declined to become a member.

ARTICLE VI. RESIGNATIONS.

SECTION 1. All resignations shall be in writing addressed to the Secretary. No member can resign while indebted to the Club. No member can resign within the current quarter unless dues for that quarter are paid in full.

ARTICLE VII. FEES AND DUES.

SECTION 1. The initiation fee in addition to taxes thereon shall be two hundred and fifty dollars for Senior Resident and Special Nonresident members, one hundred dollars for Senior Intermediate resident members, fifty dollars for Intermediate resident members and one hundred and fifty dollars for Nonresident members. A former member, upon application accepted by the Governing Board, may be reinstated by payment of the current initiation fee applicable to the type of membership for which he qualifies at the time of application for reinstatement or by payment of the dues accruing during the period of non-membership.

SEC. 2. The annual dues of members, in addition to taxes thereon, shall be as follows: Senior members—One hundred and fifty dollars, payable quarterly in advance on the first day of January, April, July, and October. Senior-Intermediate and Special Nonresident members—One hundred dollars, payable quarterly in advance on the first day of January, April, July and October. Intermediate members—Seventy-five dollars, payable quarterly in advance on the first day of January April, July, and October. Nonresident members residing within the State of Georgia, seventy-five dollars and Nonresident members residing outside the State of Georgia, Lady Golf and Junior Golf members, twenty-five, in each case payable annually in advance on the first day of January; provided, that whenever in the judgment of the Governing Board, increased costs of operation make it advisable, the quarterly dues of Senior members may be increased for any succeeding quarter by an amount not exceeding $12.50 per member.

SEC. 3. Any member who has paid dues for one year, and who may be absent from territory covered by resident membership for a continuous period of six months or longer, shall be exempt from the payment of his dues for the period of his absence, if he shall give previous notice to the Governing Board of his intention to be absent.

SEC. 4. Whenever any Nonresident member shall move into the territory covered by resident membership, or have his place of business therein, he shall notify the Secretary's office and, if approved by the Governing Board, be classed in his proper classification, and be subject to payment of balance of initiation fee, dues and assessments as provided in the case of such members, subject to forfeiting his membership upon failure to do so.

SEC. 5. When a Senior, Senior-Intermediate, or Intermediate member shall become a Nonresident of territory covered by resident membership, and remove his place of business therefrom, he shall be entitled, on giving notice to the Governing Board, to be classed as a Nonresident member.

SEC. 6. Whenever an Intermediate or a Senior Intermediate member reaches the age of the next classification, he shall be subject to the payment of an additional fee, in an amount, which, when added to the initiation fee already paid by such member, will equal the initiation fee applicable to the classification for which he qualifies, provided, however, that no Intermediate or Senior Intermediate member elected prior to February 3, 1948 shall be subject to the payment of any additional fee upon reaching the age of next classification.

SEC. 7. Whenever a member shall have been a resident or nonresident member of the Club for a total period of 40 years, he shall thereupon become a Life member, and shall be exempt from the payment of dues.

ARTICLE VIII. ASSESSMENTS.

SECTION 1. Should it be necessary to levy an assessment, the Governing Board shall call a special meeting of the Club, and submit a full report of the condition of its affairs. It shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members present at such a meeting to authorize such assessment, which shall in no event exceed ten dollars per member in any one year.

ARTICLE IX. PENALTIES

SECTION 1. Any member who shall fail to pay the dues or any assessment, for three months after due, shall, upon the facts being presented to the Governing Board, cease to be a member, subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7.

SEC. 2. Any member who shall fail to pay in full any amount due to the Club (other than dues and assessments), for fifteen days after notice, shall, upon the facts being presented to the Governing Board, be suspended from the privileges of the Club, and if not paid within one month after such suspension, shall cease to be a member, subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7.

SEC. 3. Should any member of this Club be guilty of unbecoming conduct, or of conduct calculated to bring the Club into discredit, or rendering him unfit for association with gentlemen, the Governing Board, of its own motion, or on written complaint of three members, shall give the member ten days' notice, and at the expiration of that time shall investigate the matter. Should their findings be adverse to the member, they shall expel him; if in his favor, they shall fully exonerate him.

From such decision, if adverse, the accused may appeal in the manner provided by Article XIV.

ARTICLE X.

NOTICES.

SECTION 1. Any member may inscribe in a book to be kept at the Club-house, a mail address for notices prescribed by the Constitution and Rules. In the absence of such inscription, notices shall be served by depositing them in the mail, addressed to him at Atlanta. He shall be held to have received them within five days after they are so mailed.

ARTICLE XI.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Club on the first Tuesday in February of each year, for the reception and consideration of the reports of the officers and committees, for the fiscal year ending December 31, and for the consideration of such other business as may be brought before it.

SEC. 2. If there be no quorum the members present shall adjourn the meeting to any other day.

SEC. 3. Upon the written request of ten members, the Governing Board shall call a special meeting to consider subjects specified and at such meeting no other business shall be considered.

SEC. 4. Twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Club.

SEC. 5. The Governing Board shall meet once a month.

SEC. 6. Special meetings of the Governing Board may be called by order of the President or of the House Committee.

SEC. 7. A majority of its members, exclusive of those absent by permission, shall constitute a quorum of the Governing Board; provided, the number present be not less than three.

ARTICLE XII.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

SECTION 1. A President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and three members of the Governing Board shall be elected annually. The three members of the Governing Board, to be elected annually, shall hold office for the term of three years; and no member so elected shall again be eligible for election until at least one year has elapsed after the expiration of his term of office. This provision shall not apply to the offices of President and Vice-President, who shall be eligible to two consecutive terms of one year each, after which they shall not be eligible until one year has elapsed. All nominations for the office of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and members of the Governing Board, shall be made in open meeting, at the annual meeting of the Club immediately preceding the election, and no member not so nominated shall be eligible to election to such office. Prior to the opening of the polls for such election, the Secretary shall post at such polls a list of the nominations made at such annual meeting.

SEC. 2. Said election shall be held under the supervision of three inspectors, to be appointed at the meeting preceding the time of election, who shall certify the result to the Secretary.

SEC. 3. The polls shall remain open from 12 o'clock M. to 9 o'clock P. M.

SEC. 4. Each member shall register at the time he votes.

SEC. 5. Members indebted to the Club are not entitled to vote.

SEC. 6. The persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected, provided, not less than twenty-five votes have been cast.

SEC. 7. In the event of a failure to elect, the Secretary shall notify the members, and the same inspectors shall hold another election on each following Tuesday, until a selection is made, in the manner hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 8. Should the inspectors appointed decline or fail to act, the President may appoint others in their stead.

ARTICLE XIII.

DUTY OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Club, and of the Governing Board. In the event of their absence, the Club, or the Governing Board may elect its presiding officer.

SEC. 2. The Secretary and Treasurer shall give notice to the resident members of all meetings of the Club, and such reports to the Governing Board of all meetings of that Board; record the proceedings of the Club and Governing Board; receive and receipt for all moneys due and belonging to the Club; pay all bills approved by the Governing Board; keep an account of all money passing through his hands, make a report to the Club at each regular meeting, of the receipts, expenditures and financial condition of the Club, and to the members of the Governing Board as it may require; conduct all correspondence, under the direction of the President, and attend to all matters appertaining to his office.

SEC. 3. He shall be required to give a bond, approved by the Finance Committee, in a sum of not less than two thousand dollars.

ARTICLE XIV.

APPEALS.

SECTION 1. Any member expelled, suspended or fined, shall have the right to appeal to the next annual meeting of the Club, or to a special meeting called for that purpose. In case a fine has been imposed, payment thereof shall constitute a condition precedent to the right of appeal.

SEC. 2. Notice to the Secretary of the appeal must be given by him at least two weeks before the annual meeting of the Club.

ARTICLE XV.

INTERPRETATION.

SECTION 1. The interpretation of the Constitution and Rules shall rest with the Governing Board, when the Club is not in session.

ARTICLE XVI.

AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1. Amendments to the Constitution may be made at any meeting of the Club, annual or special, by a two-thirds vote, after notice has been given in writing and posted in the Club-house for at least one month.

General Rules

The following are the Rules of the Club as adopted and amended from time to time by the Governing Board. New rules and changes in the rules made after July 1, 1949, appear in the minutes of Club Records.

RULES.

MEETINGS.

The order of business at regular Club meetings shall be:

Roll Call.

Reading of Minutes.

Report of Governing Board.

Report of Secretary and Treasurer.

Report of Special Committees.

Unfinished business.

New business.

The usual parliamentary rules shall govern the meetings of the Club and Governing Board.

GOVERNING BOARD

1. The Governing Board shall meet regularly on the third Tuesday of each month, at such hour as the President may designate.

2. No member of the Governing Board shall sign the recommendation of any applicant for membership.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

3. All endorsers of applicants for membership shall furnish in writing to the Membership Board full information concerning the character, standing, etc., of the applicant, together with his length of residence here, and if recently come to Atlanta, with references from his former residence. No applicant for Resident or Nonresident membership shall be voted on unless personally known to at least two members of the Governing Board. Applications for membership will not be accepted by the Secretary nor considered by the Board unless accompanied by checks covering the full amount of the initiation fee.

4. The Governing Board shall have the right to call upon any member to make on honor a full statement, oral or written, in reference to infractions of the Constitution or Rules of the Club, and he shall not be excused therefrom on the ground that the statement would be self-criminatory.

5. When a resolution has been adopted at a meeting of the Governing Board affecting the relations of a member to the Club, it shall not be acted upon at a subsequent meeting, without notice in writing by the Secretary to each member of the Board, one week before the meeting, that such action is contemplated.

6. The President and Vice-President shall be ex-officio members of all Committees appointed from the Governing Board.

HOUSE STAFF.

7. The operation of the Club, both City and Country Clubs, shall be under the control of the House Staff, consisting of the Superintendent and his assistants.

8. At all times while the Club-houses are open there shall be some member of the House Staff in same.

9. The Superintendent shall have general control and superintendence of all employees and servants, and be responsible for their conduct and cleanly appearance. He shall see that they carry out the different duties assigned them.

10. The Superintendent must report to the Chairman of the House Committee all violations of the Constitution and Rules that come to his knowledge.

11. The Superintendent shall give bond, approved by the Finance Committee, in the sum of not less than five thousand dollars.

12. The Comptroller shall have charge of the cash and books of the Club, and shall make daily deposits of cash received, in the bank designated by the Finance Committee. The accounts and books of the Club shall be audited at least once each year by an Auditor chosen by the Finance Committee.

13. The Comptroller shall give bond, approved by the Finance Committee, in a sum not less than five thousand dollars.

VISITORS.

14. Any resident member of the Club may introduce a visitor who does not reside, nor is engaged in business, in the territory covered by resident membership, by inscribing his name in a book kept for that purpose, and adding his own name and date of such introduction, or by making written request for courtesy card. Courtesy cards shall not be issued unless this provision is complied with. This privilege is confined to resident members, and no member shall have more than three courtesy cards outstanding at one time, except upon special authority of the House Committee. However, a Nonresident, Honorary or Military member may bring into the Club Nonresident guests whom he accompanies in person.

Such member shall be responsible for the conduct, character and debts of the visitor.

15. The limit of such introduction shall be fifteen days, and shall not be renewed by any member until thirty days after the expiration of the previous invitation, unless authorized by the House Committee.

16. A book shall be kept, showing date of expiration of all courtesy cards. Visitors not accompanied by members shall be required to exhibit their courtesy cards upon request.

17. After the expiration of the first renewal of a courtesy card, which shall be only by written authority of the House Committee, the privileges of the Club shall be further extended on the basis of a Temporary membership. See Art. V, Sec. 11.

18. Members are permitted to bring resident non-members for luncheon at both the City and Country Clubs every day except Saturday and Sunday.

19. Members are permitted to bring resident non-members to dinner at both the City and Country Clubs on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, provided they have a party of at least ten (10) people, and telephone the office of the Club and give the names of their guests in advance.

20. Members are not permitted to bring resident non-members to dinner at the City or Country Clubs on Thursday, Saturday and Sunday nights, New Year's Eve, or any other night designated by the Governing Board.

21. Members are permitted to bring resident non-members to any private party in a private room but such resident non-members shall not use the Mirador Room.

22. The above rules apply to all classes of membership.

JUNIOR AND LADY MEMBERS.

23. All Lady Golf and Junior Golf members shall exhibit their membership cards at any time upon request of a member of the House Staff or a member of the Governing Board.

24. All duly elected Junior Golf members shall be allowed the privilege of the City and Country Club-houses, golf course and grounds, with the exception of issuing courtesy cards.

25. Children of members, between the ages of eight and twenty-one shall have all privileges of the Club, except golfing privileges, without charge.

26. The House Committee shall have the right to revoke any invitation at any time.

PROHIBITION AND RESTRICTIONS.

27. No raffle shall be permitted in the Club-house, nor shall any advertising or subscription paper be posted therein, nor subscriptions of any character, except for Club purposes, be solicited from the members in the Club-house.

28. Card playing shall not be permitted in the Club, except in the card room provided for this purpose, and except that ladies' card parties may be held in other portions of the Club.

29. Servants must not be reprimanded by members or visitors. Any negligence by employees or servants must be reported to the Superintendent.

30. Servants shall not be sent off the Club premises by members or visitors. Messengers will be furnished on application to the office if practicable.

31. Dogs shall not be allowed in the Club-house or on the premises of either Club.

32. Members or guests must sign all checks for supplies ordered by them.

33. Servants are not permitted to accept cash due the Club.

34. Children under eight years of age will be allowed in the Club-houses only when accompanied by Club members, their wives or members' older children.

35. The Club will not, under any circumstances, be responsible for personal property.

36. No linen, silverware, glassware, chairs or other property of the Club shall be loaned or removed from the Club-houses or grounds, or be put to other use than that for which it was intended unless approved by the House Committee or Country Club Committee.

37. All house servants will be governed by the general instructions of the House Staff and will not obey orders inconsistent therewith received from other sources.

38. Members must pay for all breakage or damage caused by them or their guests.

39. Flowers belonging to the Club shall not be taken from the Club.

INDEBTEDNESS.

40. When a member's indebtedness for supplies reaches the limit of fifty dollars the Secretary shall have forwarded to him a written notice to that effect stating that his credit is suspended. Should he thereafter continue to sign due bills for supplies, a further notice shall be sent him to the effect that his credit has been suspended, and that by order of the Finance Committee, the office force has been notified not to honor his request for supplies until his indebtedness shall have been reduced below the limit.

41. On the first day of each month the Comptroller shall send a statement to each member indebted to the Club, stating the amount due and requesting payment. To each member who, by the seventeenth of each month, has not paid his account in full, a notice shall be sent stating that unless the amount as shown on the notice is paid by the twenty-second of the month, his name will be posted on the bulletin board as having been:

Posted—For previous month's housebills.

Suspended—For housebills prior to previous month.

Dropped—For previous quarter's dues (the amount shown on this shall include current quarter's dues and all housebills).

When a member pays the amount in full as shown on the notice and posted list, his name shall be erased from the list. See Art. IX, Sec. 2, for penalties.

42. No checks will be cashed by the office unless drawn or endorsed by a member of the Club, and then for an amount not exceeding $25.00 during any one day. Any member giving or endorsing a check in payment of any indebtedness to the Club or for cash advanced by the Club, which check is not paid on presentation, shall be notified of such non-payment. In the event the amount of the check is not paid to the Club within five days from the mailing of the notice of non-payment, such member shall be dealt with as follows:

(A) He shall, without further action, be forthwith suspended from all privileges of the Club, which suspension shall continue until the amount of the check is paid. Notice of such suspension shall be immediately given the member.

(B) For the second offense, within any period of twelve months against the foregoing rule, the member shall, in addition to being suspended as above referred to, be also fined the sum of five ($5.00) dollars.

(C) For the third offense, within any period of twelve months against the foregoing rule, such member shall, in addition to the suspension above provided for, be also suspended for a period of thirty days and until the amount of the check is paid.

(D) Any member who frequently or habitually gives checks to the Club which are returned unpaid, shall, in the discretion of the Governing Board, have his credit at the Club suspended for such period as under the circumstances the Governing Board may deem proper.

(E) No drafts may be cashed for members or non-members.

Any member who is dropped from membership on account of failure to pay dues or due bills shall be required to make application in writing for reinstatement. Such application to be posted on the bulletin board and take its proper place on the list of applications.

43. All indebtedness is payable at the Club-house.

PENALTIES.

44. For disorderly conduct in the Club, and for violation of any of the above stated rules and restrictions, a member shall be fined or suspended by the House Committee, or expelled by the Governing Board, as the gravity of the offense may require.

in the discretion of such Committees. Provided, however, that any member fined or suspended by the House Committee shall have the right of appeal to the Governing Board, upon first paying the fine imposed, if any; and also provided, that the House Committee shall not have the power to alter, excuse or amend any penalty imposed by the Governing Board.

45. Any member failing to pay any fine imposed under the above authority within fifteen days shall be suspended, and if not paid within thirty days thereafter, he shall be expelled.

47. All food and drinks served in the City and Country Clubs must be served by the Club at regular retail prices. If beverages are bought at wholesale from the Club, then consumed on the premises, the Club reserves the right to charge the regular retail Club prices for individual drinks. Should beverages be brought to the Club for service on Club property, a corkage charge of $3.00 per bottle will be made.

48. During the summer season, Friday night is open night at the Country Club. Members may bring residents of Atlanta as dinner guests, regardless of the number in their party. This rule does not include privileges of the swimming pool.

AMENDMENTS.

49. All amendments to these rules must be submitted in writing, and lie over thirty days before action by the Governing Board.

City Club Rules

1. The Club-house shall be opened at 8:00 A. M. and closed promptly at 12:00 midnight. No supplies of any character shall be furnished to Club members or visitors after closing. In case of entertainments by the Club, or by any member or members of the Club, the House Committee shall be authorized to suspend, for such occasions, the operation of this rule. Such suspension shall not operate for the benefit of any member or visitor other than those participating in the entertainment.

2. Each member remaining in the Club-house after the hours above prescribed, except those occupying sleeping rooms, or who prevents or obstructs the closing of the Club-house, as described, shall be fined or suspended in the discretion of the Governing Board.

3. Sleeping upon the lounges and drinking in the library or on the front veranda is prohibited.

4. Publications belonging to the Club must, under no circumstances, be removed from the Reading Room, or mutilated in any manner.

5. Members will not be allowed in the Club-house without their coats and ties.

6. Members of whatever class, as well as duly accredited visitors introduced on courtesy cards by members, may engage sleeping rooms, which will be allotted in the order applied for. A person occupying a room will be charged for the day unless notice of intention to vacate is given the office by twelve o'clock noon. The rates for rooms shall be fixed by the House Committee.

7. Any member or visitor engaging a room must register at the front office.

8. Musical instruments will not be allowed in the rooms of members if objection is made by any one member of the Club.

9. All laundry sent out by any member or visitor through any Club employee shall be at the owner's risk.

10. No notice of any kind shall be placed in the Club-house except by authority of the House Committee.

11. Arrangements may be made with the Superintendent for special meals, dinner parties, card parties, private receptions and private dances, subject to approval of the House Committee.

12. Reservations for luncheons, dinners, parties, rooms, etc., shall be made only with the Superintendent, his assistants, or the Club's office employees. Reservations given to headwaiters, waiters, or other employees shall not be considered as bona fide reservations.

13. Only members and their immediate families have the privilege of attending the Club's Annual New Year's Ball.

Country Club Rules

1. The Club-house shall be opened at 8:00 A. M. and closed at 10:00 P. M., except on such occasions as a different hour may be authorized by the Country Club Committee.

2. The use of the Country Club by outside organizations for dancing or other entertainments must be sponsored by a member and shall not be permitted except upon authority of the Country Club Committee, provided no such evening entertainment shall extend beyond 1:00 A. M., and provided that a list of the chaperons be submitted to the Country Club Committee. Said sponsor shall be responsible for the conduct, all indebtedness, and all charges incident to party.

3. Children other than Junior members must dress and undress in the quarters provided for them in the bath house, and will not be permitted to dress, undress or enter the locker rooms.

4. No notice of any kind, except Golf notices, shall be placed in the Club-house except by authority of the Chairman of the Country Club Committee.

5. No trash of any description shall be thrown into the lake.

6. Arrangements may be made with the Superintendent for special meals, dinner parties, card parties, private receptions and private dances, subject to approval of Country Club Committee.

7. Reservations for luncheons, dinners, parties, rooms, etc., shall be made only with the Superintendent, his assistants, or the Club's office employees. Reservations given to headwaiters, waiters, or other employees shall not be considered as bona fide reservations.

8. The shrubbery and flowers on the Country Club property shall not be cut, broken or mutilated in any manner.

9. Members will not be allowed in the Club-house, without their coats, nor with hob-nail shoes, above locker room floor.

10. All privileges of the Club, including House, Lake and Tennis and Badminton Courts (but not Golf Course), shall be extended to the ladies and children of the families of members, subject to posted restrictions.

11. Ladies are not allowed in the Grill Room between the hours of 8:00 A. M. and 7:00 P. M.

12. No male adults having a residence or place of business within a radius of 35 miles of Atlanta, not members of the Club, shall be admitted to the Club premises, except upon special permission from the Country Club Committee or Governing Board. Male guests must have a courtesy card or be accompanied by a member.

13. No parking of cars on driveways is permitted.

14. Luncheon or dinner parties of twenty-five or more people shall have the privilege of playing golf at a greens fee of $1.25 per person per day.

15. Children are not permitted in the Grill, except when accompanied by parents.

16. Coats must be worn by men at all times upstairs.

17. No bathing suits are to be worn by women or children upstairs at any time. Shorts and sweater or coat are acceptable.

LOCKERS.

1. Lockers will be rented on a yearly basis to individual members at rates to be fixed by the Country Club Committee.

2. All garments, wearing apparel or other articles left out of lockers will be removed to a place designated by the Country Club Committee, where they will remain at owner's risk.

3. All laundry sent out by any member of the Club through any Club employee shall be at the owner's risk.

4. No employee of the Club shall open any locker without the authority of the owner.

GOLF.

1. All members are required to observe such rules and regulations as are approved and posted by the Country Club Committee. Failure to observe such rules shall make member liable to suspension.

2. Members of the Atlanta Athletic Club, Ansley Park Golf Club, Druid Hills Golf Club, Marietta Country Club, and Peachtree Golf Club, when accompanied by a member of the Capital City Club, may play golf on Thursday of each week at the Capital City Country Club upon payment of the regular greens fee. This privilege is reciprocal with the other Clubs.

3. No matches of more than four persons shall be allowed on the course at any time.

4. Members must not leave golf clubs in any portion of the Club-house except in their lockers or the golf shop.

5. Players are permitted to go through any other players not holding their places on the course. Twosomes and threesomes have right-of-way over foursomes except on Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays, and may play through them.

6. Play is restricted to foursomes only on Saturday afternoons, Sunday mornings and Holidays.

7. No 18-hole rounds to be started after 11:00 A. M. on Saturdays and holidays when starting times are in effect.

8. No practice allowed on regular greens or fairways—areas have been provided for this purpose.

9. On holes No. 8 and No. 18, players upon reaching greens, before putting out, will stand aside to permit following players to drive.

10. No play shall begin at No. 10 tee after 2:00 P. M. on Sundays.

11. Nonresident guests shall have the privilege of using the links on request of members, who shall write the names and addresses of their guests in the visitors' book, and be responsible for all acts committed by them, provided that: Every member introducing a guest to the links shall pay a greens fee of $3.00 a day.

12. The wife or child of a member can play any morning except Sundays and Holidays by paying a greens fee of $1.00. Other times—Greens fee—$3.00.

13. Beginning the last Saturday in February, starting time will be in effect on Saturday afternoons, Sunday mornings and Holidays. Reservations must be made at the Country Club (Phone Cherokee 2121) and all play must be in four ball matches. (Individuals in the same match may not engage more than one starting time.) Reservations cannot be made prior to 9:00 A. M. of the day preceding play. If a match fails to appear at its proper time, the starter may assign it the next vacant period.

14. Rules of Golf by the U. S. G. A. can be seen at the Club-house.

15. All players must register with Caddie Master. Until this is done caddies will not be assigned.

16. Divots must be replaced and sand traps smoothed.

17. Members should observe the etiquette of golf.

JUNIOR AND LADY GOLF MEMBERS

1. Junior and Lady Golf members may play on the links at any time except Saturday afternoons, Sunday or Holiday mornings, unless they are playing in a regular Club tournament. Junior or Lady Golf members may play Sunday afternoons and Holiday afternoons after 2:00 o'clock and must start on No. 1 tee, and must be accompanied by a regular member. Any two-some, threesome or foursome composed solely of Junior or Lady Golf members must at all times give way to matches composed of regular male members. All matches composed of men shall always have the privilege of going through mixed foursomes.

2. The wife, daughter or sister, or other dependent female member, of the regular member's family, shall have the privileges of the golf course by becoming a Lady Golf member. See Art. V, Sec. 9.

3. A Lady Golf member can bring wives of members of the Atlanta Athletic Club, Ansley Park Golf Club, Druid Hills Golf Club, Marietta Country Club, and Peachtree Golf Club, any morning except Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays, provided they are off the course by 1:00 P. M. and that a greens fee of $1.00 per person is paid. No one visitor is allowed to play but one morning per month at this greens fee.

4. The Atlanta Women's Golf Association members may play without greens fees of any kind one day each month—usually the morning of the second Tuesday.

CADDIES.

1. The caddie fee shall be established by the Country Club Committee and notice of same posted in locker room.

2. The following regulations in regard to the engagement of caddies must be complied with, a strict observance of which is essential to proper discipline and the enjoyment of equal privileges by all members and visitors:

(a) Caddies must be engaged only through the Caddie Master, and then only upon the arrival of a member at the Club-house. No reservation of caddies can be made in advance of member's arrival.

(b) Members must pay their caddie fees in cash.

(c) Members must take their bags at the outside entrance to the locker rooms, as caddies will not be allowed to come into the Club-house.

(d) Players must not buy balls from caddies, nor offer rewards for finding balls. A golf ball marker and register is installed in the office of the Professional and members are urged to mark their golf balls and co-operate to prevent violation of the rule prohibiting the purchasing of golf balls from caddies.

(e) Under this arrangement the Professional will redeem all golf balls marked at 10 cents each, and no caddie is permitted to dispose of a marked ball except in this manner. The owner of the ball can then procure it from the Professional upon the payment of 10 cents redemption fee.

At such times when there are not enough caddies for each player it is required that players double up with their caddies.

3. Any member buying golf balls from caddies will be fined $10.00 for the first offense and suspended thirty days for the second offense.

4. Any inattention, carelessness or misbehavior on the part of caddies should be reported to the Professional.

SWIMMING AND LAKE.

10. Valuables may be checked with the Club office. The Club will not be responsible for lost or misplaced valuables.

11. The pool will be supervised by qualified guards. All members and guests are requested to observe these rules.

12. Life guards will be on duty only from 10:00 A. M. to 9:00 P. M.

13. All persons entering the pool must register with the life guard.

14. A member having a luncheon or dinner party for ten or more may invite children of non-members and the party has the privileges of the pool.

15. The Governing Board will impose penalties and fines as provided in the Constitution and By-Laws on members violating these rules.

16. No one is permitted the privilege of the lake except members and their families or adult Nonresident guests. Children are not permitted to bring other children in the lake whose parents are residents of Atlanta and not members of the Club.

17. Children under twelve years of age, whether in boats or otherwise, are not permitted to use the lake except when life guard is on duty.

18. Members having boats on the lake shall see that they are kept above water or removed from the lake.

19. Any member owning a boat is required to put his name on it and must keep his boat in the boathouse or in the lagoon back of the boathouse when not in use. A key to the gate of the lagoon will be kept in the office at the Club-house. Any member giving anyone permission to use his boat must notify the Club Management in writing.

20. The Club shall not be responsible for injury to or the loss of any boat.

TENNIS AND BADMINTON.

No. 17310

To the Superior Court of said County:

The petition of THE CAPITAL CITY CLUB respectfully shows:

1. It is a corporation chartered by order of this Court on the 21st day of May, 1883, as a social organization without capital stock.

2. Said charter has been renewed by successive orders of this Court on May 2, 1903; June 14, 1923 and July 23, 1923, which extended said charter until May 21, 1943. Said charter expired on May 21, 1943, but the corporation has continued in business in ignorance of such expiration.

3. The membership of said corporation, at a special meeting duly called for the purpose, have unanimously adopted a resolution asking for a revivor and renewal of said charter, a copy of which is hereto attached, marked "Exhibit A".

4. Petitioner desires to revive and to renew its said charter, together with all amendments thereto, for a further period of twenty (20) years from May 21, 1943, so that the same as revived and renewed will expire on May 21, 1963.

Wherefore, petitioner respectfully prays that after publication as required by law that its charter be revived and renewed for a full period of twenty (20) years, and that the acts and doings of petitioner in the period between the date of expiration and date of revivor be confirmed and held as the acts and doings of the original corporation so revived.
